Cameron To Vote On Meters, Council

MOO, COW, AND HOW! -- This gives you an idea of the size of the milking parlor and quality of the Jerseys now in milk production at the J. K. Stuart Dairy, northwest of Cameron. These and another 50 registered Jerseys were trucked to Cameron from Bartow, Florida over the weekend. It doesn't hurt for the cow to have a pretty good IQ. She must follow a certain line to get to a stall where, while being milked in less than four minutes, she is fed automatically, so much feed for so much milk. You might coin a orbit-age phrase: "It's Grade A-OK!"

Republicans Organize GOP Milam Primary

The Republican Party will hold a primary election in Milam County on May 5th for its candidates for state and national office, the party's temporary county chairman, J. W. Tumlinson, announced today.

The GOP's county executive committee and primary committee, he said, are at work on plans at this time for holding the election, believed to be the first Republican primary in Milam County's history.

Tumlinson, a Cameron real estate man, was appointed temporarily to the county chairmanship following an announcement by the Republican district committeeman, J. R. Milam Jr., of Waco, of the resignation of E. H. Coffield. Coffield, who held the post for a number of years, resigned recently due to ill health.

Tumlinson said the new county chairman will be selected by the voters at the party's May 5th primary.

"We hope", he said in explaining the decision to hold a primary in the county, "to give the individual voter a greater voice and a wider choice in his government at all levels -- something he does not have in Texas' one - party system."

And tentative plans are under way to have several of the Republican candidates for statewide office to make an appearance here some time before the May 5th primary.

A mailing list of all Republicans in Milam County is being compiled, Tumlinson said, and anyone interested in being on it should write him at P. O. Box 5, Cameron.

Explorers Learn Auto Mechanics

Special To The Herald

Fourteen Cameron boys are proving to themselves that "where there's a will, there's a way."

They are members of a newly formed Explorer troop, Post 85, unique in Cameron as an Automotive Specialty group.

Banded together because of their interest in automobiles and their mechanics, the boys were lucky enough to find a sponsor, F. G. Blake of the local Coca-Cola Bottling Company, and a leader, Barney Owen.

Owen meets with the boys every Tuesday night at the Coke plant and helps teach them about cars. Blake gave the troop a '52 Coke truck to work on. And different local motor companies put on programs to help teach the boys about mechanics.

But that inevitable monster - finance - has reared its head, and the boys need a way to finance the club and money to buy tools and equipment.

They came up with a plan - and it seems to be a good one, too. They decided to build a drag strip in Cameron to finance the troop and at the same time it would keep the boys from hotroding on the streets.

At their first meeting, several weeks ago, they decided on the strip as a possible project. Several members and adults are looking into the feasibility of such a project.

In the meantime, the boys are currently conducting a "bottle Drive" to raise funds for the troop. In a house - to - house campaign, the boys, all Yoe High School students, collect any kind of soft-drink bottle people will donate. The deposit is then collected and put into the troop fund. "We would appreciate anyone's help", they said.

TWO BALLOTS AWAIT VOTERS NEXT TUESDAY

City voters will go to the polls Tuesday to cast ballots for mayor and three council posts and whether or not meters stay in Cameron.

Polls are open from 8 a. m. to 7 p. m. at City Hall.

Running unopposed for re -election are incumbent Mayor Coleman Duncum and Councilmen Roy Griffith, Sam B. Houston and J. Starrett Hickman.

Duncum is running for a second two - year term. Hickman is seeking election to fill an unexpired term, following his appointment to his post in 1961.

11th TERMER

Griffith is seeking his 11th term as a member of the Council. He served one term as mayor about 15 years ago, and served 20 years on the Council through this year.

Councilman Houston is seeking re - election for a third term.

The meter question was placed on the April 3 City Ballot after a petition of 46 people, includng a number of downtown business people, sought a city - wide vote on the issue.

Mayor Coleman Duncum and the Council met with a group of downtown merchants in November, 1961, when the meter issue was reviewed. About 20 downtown merchants voted to seek permanent removal of the meters at that time.

In February, the Council received the 46 - name petition and voted to place the issue on the April 3 ballot.

PRIOR METER VOTE

A similar election was held in July 1957 and city voters voted 4 to 1 to keep the meters.

A Downtown Merchants group contends that meters are hurting business, and that some rural shoppers are going to other towns because meters are operating in downtown Cameron.

Mayor Duncum told the group in November that projects budgeted by an annual meter revenue of about $5,000 would have to drop if meters are voted out.

Up to this week, interest in both elections has been light, city officials told The Herald.

Lions To Conduct Annual Bulb Sale Here Next Week

The Cameron Lions Club will launch its annual light bulb sale Monday, according to Committee Chairman Fred Carroll.

Twelve teams will be selling light bulbs and household items for Lions Club charities.

A downtown booth will operate at Main and Houston with Lions' wives conducting sales. Bill Nolan and Bill Tolson are in charge of the booth.

The drive will be conducted Monday through Thursday next week.

Teams are: Richard Williams, John Schigut and Coleman Duncum; George Bowman, Jimmy Wiggs and Gus Evans; Bill Crockett, Rev. Jewell Strong and S. D. Ripley; Charles Zeigler, Oxsheer Smith and Jerald Underwood, Narvie Caperton, Lee Roy Massengale, Bill Peck and Bob Clark; Jimmy Rettig, Ray Stevens and Bo Titsworth; Ed Laywell, Porter Young and Pat Garner; Bill Tolson, Sid Richardson and Ed Schiller; Byron Wise, Charles Elmore and Forrest Sapp; Monroe Fuchs, Charles Chandler and Henry Ivey; John Henderson, Jack Prescott and Don Humble; Fred Carroll, E. A. Perrin, A. W. McCullin and Charles Brady.

'WHAT'S A 'CITIAN'? The Herald was queried about the use of "Citian" in a head last week.

The best answer is a condemnation of the newspaper's headcount. But that won't suffice.

The word "citian" is not in an abridged dictionary. Nor is "countian". And The Herald has used both at times.

One might ask: "What is a Roman"? It is in the dictionary. But since Rome existed some 2,000 years before Mr. Johnson wrote the first dictionary, it was an accepted description of a citizen of Rome.

Newspapers are faced with fitting words, somewhat like a jigsaw puzzle, into a certain width head. Each letter counts for so much space, limiting the options a headwriter has in using nouns and verbs.

The Herald often uses "Cameronite", which most certainly is not in an abridged or unabridged dictionary, but it is used.

Like some kind of poetic license (better called journalese at times), headlines take the shortest, most direct route to describe the subject of a story. The case in question described a "citian" (for lack of space for the full name) winning an award.

103 . 103 - 103

This was written by a political candidate to a newspaper publisher who demanded that he take a stand on Whiskey Drinking.

"I had not intended to discuss this most controversial subject as I want you to know ..... I take a firm stand on every issue ..... regardless of how I feel about whiskey. And, Brother, here's where I stand on this burning issue. If you mean the Devils Brew, the Poison Scourge, the Bloody Monster, the Defilor of the Innocent, that liquid that dethrones reason, creates misery and poverty, Yes: literally takes the bread out of the mouths of babes; if you mean that evil concoction that topples Christian men and women from the pinnacles of righteous and gracious living down into the bottomless pit of despair and degredation, shame, helplessness and hopelessness, then Sir, I am against this Brew of Saton with all my power.

"However, if you mean the oil of conversation, the philosophic wine and all that is consumed when good fellows get together, that puts a song in the heart and laughter on the lips, a warm glow of contentment and well being into the eyes, if you mean the Christmas cheer, if you mean the toddy that puts a spring in the old man's step on a frosty morning, if you mean the drink that enables a man to magnify his joy and happiness and forget his debts and life's other tragedies, heartbreaks and sorrows; if you mean that drink, Sir, the sale of which pours into the treasury untold millions of dollars, which are used to provide tender care for little crippled children, our blind, our pitifully aged and sick and infirm, and to build highways, hospitals, schools, then Brother, I'm for it: This, Sir is my stand. I will not ... retract one word nor will I compromise. You asked for my stand on this question. There it is."

Dairying -- Final Report

Florida Jerseys Arrive Here

Five truckloads of registered Jersey cows last week arrived at the J. K. Stuart Dairy, northwest of Cameron, and went into immediate production in the huge, near - completed "Milk parlor."

The cows' arrival set in motion the most modern operation in the Southwest and set the tone for a growing dairy industry in Central Texas.

G. F. Dunston, manager of the dairy complex still abuilding, accompanied the stock from their former home in Bartow, Florida. Kamenicky Trucking hauled the 114 animals across the 1,000 - mile trip of special milk stops and feedings.

Dunston put the Stuart Dairy operation to its first test as soon as the cows arrived. He started automatic milking and hand feeding even while workmen were installing equipment around the milk parlor, now about 90 per cent complege.

MILKING MAZE

It has become a maze of alleyways, crisscrossing the large, open milking room. Cows are milked and fed in three and a half minutes, twice a day.

Dunston hopes to get the balance of the operation going in a few weeks. Only half of the milking capacity is being used until the herd approaches about 200 head.

Other steel buildings are now under construction, primarily calf barns and storage facilities.

Dunston noted over the weekend that the number of visitors has increased since the cows arrived.

The milk parlor and adjacent buildings resembles a small modern industrial complex. Already completed are special sewage disposal and filtration plant systems. And some 30 acres of land have been bulldozed clear of scrub oak and brush.

Opening of the operation signified a rapid spread of dairying interest in Central Texas.

DOZEN OR MORE

There are some dozen or more dairies of various sizes now in operation, producing milk at twice the state average. And others are looking over the Milam area.

With the promise of higher income on a comparatively small tract of land, it is not surprising that Central Texas farmers are studying the modern dairy farm more closely.

Observers indicated several weeks ago that the promise of increased dairy production here has tipped the scales even further toward dairying and livestock.

And some conjecture has already been made on the possibilities of a processing plant in the Cameron vicinity to use some of the milk not meeting Grade A standards.

Yes, the Stuart Dairy operation has set a direction toward dairying. And if it continues, competent, conservative observers indicate it has real promise for booming Milam agriculture.

Cattlemen Donate $5,911 Thus Far

A total of $5,911 has been donated by Milam farmers and ranchers for the state - wide Screwworm and Brucellosis Program, according to County Chairman John Batte.

The funds go to the Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation which is conducting the program to eradicate the two cattle diseases.

Sterile male flies will be turned loose by the millions to eliminate further reproduction of deadly screwworm, Batte said. Florida, where the first program began, has succeeded in elinminating screwworm in cattle.

Cattlemen who have not already contributed are urged to contact their committeemen, who are:

Brown Ely, Gause; Herbert Fieseler, Rockdale; Erwin Fuessel, Thorndale; Calvin Shenkir, Buckholts; H. M. Yager, Maysfield; and Clifford Angell, Jones Prairie.

These community chairmen also have petitions to be signed by cattlemen, Batte noted. The petitions need 75 per cent of the cattle owners having 51 per cent of the cattle in Milam County.

With the petitions fully signed, Batte continued, a hearing will be held in the county on Brucellosis and at that time actual work will be started on the elimination of Brucellosis (Bangs Disease).

Most of the counties west of Milam County are certified Brucel losis free at this time, he pointed out. Other counties adjoining Milam are working on an elimination program.

Petitions are also available at the Milam County Farm Bureau office in Cameron, he noted. Contributions to the screwworm program may also be left there.

Batte predicted a new day in cattle raising when screwworms and Brucellosis can be eliminated.

News About Milam Farmers, Their Interests, And Activities

Milam ASCS Report

By Milam County ASCS

Through March 1st, 395,497 farms over the nation had signed up for the 1962 feed grain program to divert 9,030,700 acres from grain sorghum and corn production this year. This diversion is approximately 47 per cent of the total 19,121,000 base acreages of the signed farms -- that is, the average 1959 - 60 plantings of corn and grain sorghum. To date, approximately 90 per cent of the total participating farms for 1961 in Milam County have already signed an intention to participate in the 1962 feed grain program. Alva Sanders, County Office Manager, Milam County ASCS Office, says, "Up to the same late alst year, approximately 200 less had signed an intention to participate in Milam County than had signed so far this year. This is an indication that at least as many and probably more, will participate in the 1962 feed grain program than signed to participate in 1961.

"Farmers who participate in the 1962 feed grain program", says Sanders "will derive benefits for themselves and for the entire nation, directly and indirectly. Reducing feed grain acreages for 1962 will cut down production. By cutting down production, feed grain stocks held by the Government will be reduced, thus reducing the expense of storing and handling these stocks. Such a reduction will benefit all taxpayers. Furthermore, taking payment on the diverted acres and price support on corn and grain sorghum produced on participating farms, will increase farm income and help the economy of the nation as a whole. Allowing the diverted land to rest will benefit not only the farmer, but all Americans, since taking land out of production and placing it in a conservation use by planting a soil building cover on it will protect and improve the land for future production and future generations. Thus diverting our farm land will serve a two - fold purpose by assuring the productivity of our land for the future without harmful results to our economy for the present. We could go on and on to explain the many benefits which might be gained by signing up for the 1962 feed grain program."

While the 1962 feed grain program is entirely voluntary, feed grain farmers are requested to take a careful look at the benefits and try to work out some way to include the 1962 feed grain program in their farming plans. March 30th is the last day to decide.

COTTON REPORT

Activity in the spot markets was seasonally slow. The demand for spot cotton was small and selective. Domestic and foreign interest was slightly stronger. Cotton planting was nearing a completion in the Valley. Moisture is needed over a large part of the area.

Prices for Middling 1" cotton remained steady this week quoted Thursday, March 22 at 33.50 cents in Dallas, 33.40 cents in Galveston, 33.25 cents in Houston and 33.00 cents in Lubbock, unchanged from last week. The discounts for the lower Spotted grades weakened around $1.25 per bale in the Lubbock market. Activity in the spot markets was limited mainly to shipper demand for current requirements. The demand was best for strict Low Middling and lower grades in 1" and shorter staples of good character. Supplies are dwindling and offerings were small in volume with prices curtailing some trading.

The weather was generally favorable for farming activities. Land and seedbed preparation were in excellent state of cultivation.

"And when will they put in the STREET?"

County Agents Notes

Petition Started For Cattlemen

By J. D. Moore
Milam County Agent

During the county wide campaign to solicit money for the screwworm program, the community chairmen were asked to circulate a petition in their community for the purpose of getting enough signatures to represent 75 percent of the cattle owners owning 51 per cent of the cattle in Milam County as reflected by the tax roll. This is the first step in petetioning the State for a Brucellosis clean - up in Milam county.

Stokmen who have not signed one of these petitions are asked to do so at once. Community chairmen to contact are Brown Ely, Gause; Joe Martin, Milano; Herbert Fieseler, Rockdale; Erwin Fuessel, Thorndale; Calvin Shenkir, Buckholts; H. M. Yager, Maysfield; Clifford Angell, Jones Prairie and those in the Cameron area may stop by the Farm Bureau office and sign a petition left there for their convenience.

The clean - up program is simple, with no cost to the producer. Stockmens' only requirement is to pen cattle and run them through a holding chute for the state or local vets to test.

Counties are being worked on a "first come" basis. It could take two or three years to test cattle in a county because of the "waiting list" plan of operation.

If the county does not clean-up through a test, cattle sold in Milam county to go into a clean county would be penalized at the expense of the local seller. Counties north, south and west of Milam are taking steps for a testing program.

Cotton Classing Service Available

COLLEGE STATION — Growers who wish to have their cotton classed by the U. S. Department of Agriculture under provisions of the Smith - Doxey Act should apply for these services as soon as their cotton is planted, says Fred Elliott, extension cotton specialist.

The Smith - Doxey Act provides for one free classification for each public warehouse which issues negotiable receipts, explains Elliott.

Each cotton improvement group, except those in southern Texas, must file an application with the cotton classing office serving its territory not later than August 1. Those in counties south of a line from Dimmit to Karnes to Matagorda must file an application by June 1.

Judging To Begin In Community Improvement Plan

COLLEGE STATION — The time of decision has arrived. Judging will begin next month, reports Reagan Brown, extension rural sociologist, in the state's 14 extension districts to determine district winners in the 1961-62 Texas Community Improvement Program.

Eight communities will be named, based on the progress made during the past year, in each of the districts. The first place district winners will then be considered by the state judging committee in their determination of the top three communities in the state, said Brown.

He added that 263 rural communities are participating in the program and that approximately 10,000 families reside in them. District extension agents, he said, will be in charge of the district judging and will soon be announcing judging schedules. A late May announcement of the "Most Progressive Rural Community in Texas" will climax another very successful year, Brown said.

He listed the objectives of the 10,000 participating families as making their communities better places in which to live, with particular emphasis on increasing and managing income; increasing the opportunities for social activities; improving the farm and home and improving health conditions and services.

Awards for the winning communities are provided by the electric utility companies operating in Texas. The program is sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service in cooperation with these same companies, Brown said.

Report Due On '61 Income Over $1200

If you are a social security beneficiary who earned over $1200 from employment or self - employment in 1961, and you were under the age of 72 in any part of the year, you must file a report of your earnings with the Social Security Administration by April 15, 1962. Faliure to report may result in a loss of benefits.

This was announced today by Durelle L. Allen, manager of the Temple Social Security District Office. Allen further explained that an estimate of your 1962 earnings will also be required.

RELIEVE THE PRESSURE OF ONE-PHONE HOMES

They bring step-saving convenience, more personal freedom and pleasure to your telephone talk. Often let you do two things at once by taking calls in the room where you are. Economical, too. You can have three extension phones in your home—in the living, sleeping and working areas—for just pennies a day!

Who needs extension phone service most?

Families that make or receive five or more calls a day.

Families with one or more members active in school, church, civic or club work.

Families with active, popular teenagers or young adults.

If any of these conditions fit your family, the chances are you need extension phone service.

To order your personal extension phones—Princess, wall or table models, in a wide range of colors—call the telephone business office, or ask any telephone service man.

Murray-Go-Round

By Tom Murray

ODDITIES ANONYMOUS -- Consider that three short years ago the mighty Green Bay Packers, master of all they survey in professional football, were called the most futily inept organization in the NFL. Now they've shot to the top so convincingly, their coach, Vince Lombardi, has received the most exalted of Catholic privileges -- a private audience with Pope John.

Did you know that John Kimbrough, the Aggies' white sequel to Ohio State's Bob Ferguson, first enrolled at Tulane or that Texas All - America Linebacker Pat Culpepper's first love was Texas A&M until Bear Bryant went home to Alabama?

How about Baylor's Dalton Hoffman, power - running fullback, allowing his younger brother to sign with TCU or Tom Ledbetter, Dalhart's outstanding running back signing with Texas when older brother Bill wears Texas Aggie Maroon?

Paul Smith, personable young football coach who owns a perenial football powerhouse at oncedown - trodden Galena Park, began his reign at CAMERON, that vibrant Central Texas football hotbed.

HOPPING AROUND

What Southwest Conference performer would you most like to have on your side in physical combat? Bill Ellington, University of Texas halfback coach, says give him Jerry Cook, the Longhorns' Biblereading 6-3, 208 pound halfback.

"If I had to go into a room to fight 30 men bare - handed," the colorful Ellington was saying, "and could take one man to help me it would be Jerry Cook. That boy is almost indestructible. Why, he's been here three years and has not missed a minute of practice for an injury."

"He hasn't even breathed hard", chimed in Frosh Coach Bob Schulz, the man who signed Paul Smith's prized pupil.

Things aren't going to be the same at SMU, the school which annually produces the wild - passing offense. Hayden Fry has laid down the law. About Jerry Rhome, Soph heir apparent to Gill Johnson, Fred Benners, Don Meredith, et al, the "run first, throw - on-desperation addict", quipped:

"He won't play if he doesn't learn to do something besides throw the ball" ..... An interesting thing to watch will be the progress, or not, of Frank Howard, the Paul Bunyanesque giant the Los Angeles Dogers have stationed at first base with the word it's his to lose. As you know, this 25-year-old has been called, "The greatest potential hitting star of all time."

You can eyeball this episode in person by tooling into Houston's South Main ball yard when the Dodgers are in to play Harry Craft's Colts.

THIS IS GOING to be an interesting summer for Texans who are tired of reading about National League heroes and want to take a look at 'em in person. It's been a long time since Casey Stengel managed in the seniorloop but you'll get a kick out of watching him reenter with the Mets ..... There will be a chance to watch the fabulous Willie Mays, called by Ump Dusty Boggess, the greatest ball - player alive, and the Braves' Hank Aaron, Hank's younger brother Tommie, with Austin in '61 may be with the Braves A better fielding first baseman you never saw.

Menan Schriewer, Seguin life insurance agent, an All - Pro end in Canadian football was a star performer in one of the SWC's all - tife great upsets, Texas' 20-7 victory over the Texas Aggies at Kyle Field Thanksgiving 1955. That's the day the underdog Longhorns held the John Crow-powered Farmers to one first down ..... It's no secret Jess Neely has never cared for Paul Bryant. Therefore, Bryant's current booming of his Tide Quarterback Jack Hurlbut as a potential all - America is not calculated to bring the pair together. It was Bryant who recruited Hurlbut out of Rice after Neely had brought him from high school obscurity to potential stardom.

Herald Recommends Schiller's Candidacy

The Herald recommends the candidacy of Milton Schiller, a local businessman, for election as state representative in the new District 45.

Creation of the new district -- composed of Milam, Robertson and Burleson Counties -- establishes a need for considering Candidate Schiller's qualifications compared to the incumbent.

Schiller has demonstrated his interest in Cameron as a city councilman, as a past president of the Cameron Chamber of Commerce and as current president of the Cameron School Board. These can be cited as requisites for understanding the fast - moving developments in Central Texas in agriculture, public finance, civic development and public roads and schools.

This new, three - county District should require a representative who sets a tone of progressive, assertive leadership. From reports on his early campaigning for the post, he is demonstrating enthusiasm and determination to meet that requirement.

Incumbent Herman Yezak is a skilled campaigner and a legislator with 18 years service in Austin. We do not recall any major legislation he has introduced or major committees on which he has served in recent terms.

We think Schiller's candidacy deserves the consideration and support of his hometown, all Milam County as well as of Robertson and Burleson Counties.

We cast our support for a man who is demonstrating he will give the new District 45 some drive and some perseverance in Austin as well as on the campaign trail.

Upon Our 103rd Birthday . . .

With this first issue of Volume 103, The Cameron Herald hopefully pauses to reflect on the course of Cameron and Milam County during the past five years.

This Milam County newspaper has gladly shared in the portion of gain and loss, achievement and disallusionment of this area.

We conclude one thing, most likely the thing that keeps an institution going for more than a century: What happened yesterday is history, not to be forgotten, perhaps cherished; and today's problems are different and certainly less complicated than tomorrow's.

Change here and in other parts of the world bear hard on us all. It can only cause us to adapt more quickly to the competition of time.

The Herald has completed a five - year program of adjustment and comparative modernization. What has been done is only a part of what must come to breast the tide of the 1960's. This newspaper cannot justify its status quo. It must and will improve.

It is our observation that those institutions which have recognized the need for progress have thrust into the modern swim of things with imagination and confidence.

What is distasteful is change for change's sake. To tear down a useful building is not progress. But to build one that is purposeful is progress.

Fundamental principles now apply to Central Texas that did not apply even five years ago, and certainly not 30 years ago. A new Central Texas, a new Milam County are emerging from the hard transition of the past five years.

The need for forthrightness, hard work, dedication and a lot of other things, cynically considered naive, is as important in the 1960's as when Texas pioneers opened up this area with guts and gusto.

Change means controversy, and The Herald has been amidst its share of that stuff, where it belongs. And no doubt, good judgment will blindly take us there again.

But it has worked for 103 years, through four major wars, newsprint rationing, skyrocketing costs and many other things.

The Herald hopes to be more of a doer in the future. We are progressive without a false sense of "progress." We are for improvement when there is a need for improvement and growth. We wear a mantle of independent, intelligent observation always meant to be constructive.

And if we can continue to do these things, there will be no apologies necessary to some 20 prior editors, who brought this newspaper to the mid - twentieth century.

HUMAN LIFE—GIFT OF GOD OR PAWN OF MAN?

Americans believe:

That human life is a precious thing granted by God; that a child who is not strong should be given every opportunity to live a full life; that people in their advanced ages should be able to enjoy the fruits of their labors, or be cared for by their families even though they have outlived their usefulness to industrial society.

Communists believe:

That there should be applied to man the rules of animal husbandry — that man's treatment should be toward the improvement of the breed, much like animals; that the aged should be eliminated as surplus; that the concept held by people of free nations — that life belongs to God and cannot be eliminated—is false and, therefore, must be disregarded.

ETERNAL VIGILANCE IS THE PRICE OF LIBERTY
To renew and awaken interest in our precious heritage of Freedom, and its superiority over the Communist philosophy, these messages are being published by the Texas Power & Light Company, an investor-owned, tax-paying electric utility.

Gov. Candidates Discuss Districts

By Vern Sanford

AUSTIN — Candidates for governor now are quarreling over legislative redistricting which would give the metropolitan cities more strength.

Poll tax payments indicate that these cities actually have the voting strength.

But final figures are not in on all counties.

Official figures plus some estimates reveal 1,250,429 qualified voters in the 12 counties which contain cities of 100,000 or more. Offhand this would indiciate that the 12 "big city" counties would have more than half the votes in the state.

But the "big 12" are not as well prepared to vote this year as they were in 1960. That year they had 1,362,173 voters. It was a presidential year. However, declines are reported for 1962 elections in all of the 12 big - city counties except Travis, where the State Capitol is located.

One notable thing about the poll tax figures is the growing number of those with exemptions from the poll tax because they are 21 years of age and vote free -- or they are over 65 and don't have to buy a poll tax in order to vote.

Indications are that there will be more exemption certificates this year (those in cities of 10,000 or more) than ever before, even in record - setting 1960.

Another fact to consider is that rural people go to the polls regardless of the weather, while inclement weather keeps many city folks home.

MOTORCIDE INCREASES

Texas Department of Public Safety statisticians figure an accident occurred in Texas traffic every 97 seconds last year, with someone killed every three hours and 47 minutes.

When the department closed its 1961 "death book", it reported a motorcide total of 2,314 -- 60 more traffic deaths than 1960 held. Drivers of 324,149 motor vehicles sustained 132,570 injuries.

December 22 was the most deadly day ..... 23 people were killed in 15 fatal accidents.

Col. Homer Garrison Jr., director of the DPS, remarked, "It is a sobering thought to realize that the number of persons killed on Texas streets and highways was greater than the population of most Texas towns.

Fourteen counties were free of fatal accidents in 1961 -- Borden, Brewster, Delta, Hansford, Hardeman, Kent, Lipscomb, Loving, Mason, Rains, Roberts, Somervell, Sutton and Upton.

"WEL - KNOWD CAMEL CART - DRIVER"

The State Highway Department is pondering a mysterious postcard that carries a request for a copy of the new 1962 highway travel map.

The return address reads:
Bahir Ahmed Sarban
(Wel-Knowd Camel Cart-Driver)
27, Corner Chambers,
181, McLeod Road
Karachi, Pakistan.

Folks at the highway department are wondering if this is the same Bashir Ahmed who visited Texas and the U. S. last year as Vice President Lyndon Johnson's guest.

There was quite a furor when that "bashir" retired his camel and accepted a gift of a new Ford. Could be he's planning to return to America and motor through the Lone Star State.

HOPES RISE FOR HISTORIC PARK

Lawson Knott Jr., depty administrator of U. S. General Services Administration informed Gov. Price Daniel that the government has granted his request for Lorenzo de Zavala's burial site to be bid on separately when San Jacinto Ordnance depot is put on the sale block.

Property contains the grave of de Zavala, a Mexican - Texasn who signed the Texas Declaration of Independence and served as vice president of the republic.

General Antonio Castillo, "a gallant foe" who died at San Jacinto also is buried there.

Governor Daniel has been urging that the de Zavala homesite and cemetery acreage be set aside for state or country park purposes. He believes this bidding provision will delay the sale of this tract to give time for Sen. Ralph Yarborough to pass a bill transferring the 142 acres to the state or county, or pave the way for some other park arrangement.

LITTLE RIVER PHILOSOPHER

Philosopher Offers Himself In Scientific Test To See If Friendship Can Be Bought

Dear Editar:

Lots of candidates throughout the country, I've noticed, whether they'rerunning for justice of the peace or Congress or what not, when they can't find anything else to run against, sometimes run against Foreign Aid.

Why give all this money away to foreign countries, they demand, pointing out that regardless of the billions of dollars we've spent, the world is in possibly worse shape than it was before we started.

I don't know anything about Foreign Aid, except that any new President that gets elected, whether he's a Democrat replacing a Republican or a Republican replacing a Democrat, and after he's been there long enough to get familiar with his job and the shape of the world, comes out for the necessity of Foreign Aid, and I'm not one to question a President on the stake the U. S. has in the welfare of the rest of the world. I believe in the division of powers. He runs Washington and I run this farm and we both have our hands full.

But what brought this to mind was a statement I read last night by a college professor who's an expert on foreign affairs. He said it has been proven impossible to buy friendship and the United States ought to stop trying it.

Now a statement like that ought to be proved. How does this college professor know friendship can't be bought? I'm not saying it can, but the question ought to be put to a test, a scientific test, this is 1962, not 1900.

Consequently, I am offering my services. If Washington will start sending me $250 a month, I will allow a group of scientists to come out to this Johnson grass farm once a month, wire me up with all those scientific gadgets they use on astronauts, and test my friendship reactions to that $250. They can even televise my pulse rate, the warmth of my heart beat, the glow on my face and the increase in my appetite when I cash that check, if they want to.

Now this thing shouldn't be any snap test. To be completely scientific in really finding out if my friendship can be bought, a big stock of data ought to be built up over several years, I'd asy eight or ten at least, through more than one administration. How did my reaction in January compare with January a year ago, two years ago, five years ago ..... things like that.

I don't know whether friendship can be bought or not, but I'm willing to sacrifice myself to this test to find out. I'd like to start not later than April 1, if possible.

Yours faithfully
J. A.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

March 22, 1962

The Cameron Herald
Cameron, Milam County, Texas
Dear Sirs:

On Sunday, March 4, 1962, The Anderson Independent, a newspaper published in Anderson, South Carolina, carried an article written by Mr. Franklin Acker, about Manse Jolly.

In the article reference was made to one of your papers which contained a picture of Manse Jolly a close - up of the headstone of his grave and an over - all picture of his grave, the grave being in Milam County, Texas.

I have contacted Mr. Franklin Acker who informs me that these pictures and an article about Manse Jolly appeared on the front page of your paper, issue of Thursday, March 9, 1961.

Now, a year later, I am wondering if it would be possible for you to send me a copy of that issue of your paper. I would be so pleased to have it and will gladly pay you for it.

Perhaps I should explain my reason for wanting the article and pictures as carried in your paper of March 9, 1961. That Manse Jolly was a great great uncle of mine and I am getting together all information I can concerning him. I have seen pictures of him but have never seen a picture of his grave. That Manse Jolly had one daughter, now deceased, and that daughter had two daughters and two sons, but I have been unable to locate any of them.

Of course, I never did see Manse Jolly as he died long before my day, but I remember his youngest brother who died when I was a child. I have visited in his home, in Georgia The name "Manse (Manson) Jolly" is a family name, that being the given name of my brother who died during World War II.

I shall look forward to hearing from you and hope that you have a copy of the paper, as requested that you can spare me.

Yours very truly,
Miss Eugenia Browne

Mr. Frank M. Luecke, Editor
Cameron Herald
Cameron, Texas
Dear Mr. Luecke:

As you may know we are planning a week - long celebration in Bryan the week of June 27 to commemorate the hundredth anniversary of John B. Hood's Texas Brigade and the founding of Bryan. In connection with this celebration the Hood's Brigade Centennial Committee is in the process of preparing and publishing a historic booklet dealing with the history of Bryan, the surrounding communities and areas. The Committee is particularly interested in locating pictures of persons, fraternal and social organizations, events, historic buildings and homes, street scenes, early industries, stores, shops, schools and such like that can be reproduced in a publication of this nature. Pictures of pioneer families in the area prior to 1870 are especially desired. Pictures of members of the Hood's Brigade, whether as individuals or in groups, are of particular interest. The date at which the picture of the individual was made should not be the determining factor, but the fact that he was in the area prior to 1870 should be the criteria.

We would like to include some pictures of historic sites or scenes and of the early settlers of Milam County in our booklet, and would appreciate knowing of such pictures and hope that those who have suitable pictures will offer them for use.

Your help in spreading the word of our needs will be much appreciated. Milam County figures prominently in the development of this whole area.

It would be greatly appreciated if those persons who have pictures would send them to Dr. J. M. Nance, Head of the Department of History and Government, The A & M College of Texas or contact Mr. Nance. Any information conerning the location of pictures that might be available for use would be helpful. The Committee would appreciate having the pictures by April 15, 1962. All pictures and materials submitted will be properly cared for and returned to the owner, who is urged to be sure to attach his name and address if sent through the mail.

Sincerely yours,
J. M. Nance,
Head of Department

New Facility Scheduled For Rockdale's Alcoa

An additional unit for the casting of direct chill aluminum ingot has been scheduled for Aluminum Company of America's Rockdale works. Work on the new facility is scheduled to start about May 1.

The new unit will be similar to one put into production here in the summer of 1960. It will cost almost a half million dollars, and is scheduled to go into production next November.

In making the announcement, Works Manager R. R. Sugg said the unit is being added to help satisfy an increased demand for aluminum sheet producs, The D. C. equipment is used in casting large rolling mill ingot.

Sugg said the additional unit does not represena new production for the Rockdale smelter, but diverts metal previously cast into other ingot shapes.

Contracts for the casting equipment and its two furnaces, the rebuilding of two other furnaces, and a metal storage pad east of the present Metal Service Building will go out within the next few days.

"The D. C. casting process," Sugg said, "is a versatile one. The additional unit will further diversify our production to meet current market demands. It means that nearly all of our production will go into D. C. and tilt mold ingot."

The equipment will produce an ingot weighing in excess of 10,000 pounds, some 50 inches in width and 138 inches long.

When the Rockdale plant originally went into production in 1952 it cast only 50 to 700 pound pig.

Tilt mold ingot, used in the extrusion fabricating process, was the third product. Machine - cast 50 pound ingot was added some three years ago.

The direct chill process utilizes a method of casting where by metal is continuously poured into a mold while water is prayed on its side. As the aluminum is solidified, the botton of the mold is lowered on a movable platform.

Rockdale Scholarship Winner Chooses A&M For Fall Studying

COLLEGE STATION — Future Aggie Johnnie Sefcik of Rockdale is a letter winner at his hometown high school.

He didn't letter in athletics even though the 17 - year - old youngster stands a slim, basketballish 6 feet 3 inches in height. Instead, his honor came through academic accomplishment, which in these days is more important than any sport.

Sefcik's academic lettering entitles him to wear a white sweater emblazoned with a boldly colored "R" for Rockdale High School The practice is relatively new among Texas high schools and is intended to recognize outsanding scholastic achievement.

Johnnie Sefcik

Johnnie, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Sefcik of Rockdale, has about a 96 grade average in high school. His strongest subjects are mathematics and the sciences, which are among the main reasons he has set his college career sights on agricultural engineering at Texas A & M College. He will start this fall.

The student recently added another honor to his ever-growing list of accomplishments. During the recent Houston Fat Stock Show, he was awarded the $6,000 Marshall Foundation Scholarship. This kind of money at Texas A & M will put him through four years of Agricultural Engineering as an undergraduate and at least one year as a graduate Student.

Sefcik plans on doing graduate work in agricultural engineering and hopes to eventually get his doctorate degree. Then he wants to go to work in industry developing and improving machinery.

But his plans at present are to prepare himself to maintain those high grades after entering A & M. He's not too afraid of the math and sciences he knows are waiting for him. It's English that has him a little worried.

"The best I've been able to do in this subject is A-minus," he says with a frown.

Johnnie got his first close look at A & M during the recent High School Career Day activities on the campus. While touring the facilities, he visited with Prof. Price Hobgood, head of the Department of Agricultural Engineering.

The student said he has selected Texas A & M because it is fairly close to Rockdale and has an "outstanding school of Engineering."

It would take a long list to tabulate Sefcik's honors and awards in high school. He is president of the Rockdale High School student body, a member of the National Honor Society and last year he won two National Science Foundation Awards.

As a member of the Future Farmers of America he was Greenhand president of his local chapter, a member of district winners in chapter conducting teams, and a member of his chapter's dairy judging team. He has dairy animals and swine for his supervised farming program.

His Jersey Heifer was a blue ribbon animal in the Houston Fat Stock Show where he won the Marshall Scholarship.

In addition to these activities, he was president and vice president of two district parliamentary procedure teams and winner of a parliamentary procedure award in a contest at Texas A & M.

No, Johnnie Sefcik is not an athlete. He doesn't need to be. The youth manages to stay in good physical shape by hunting and fishing. And there is always a big pile of stove wood to cut on the 150 - acre Sefcik family farm.

Household Workers Cautioned On Tax

Household workers, such as maid laundresses, cooks, housekeepers, gardeners, janitors chauffeurs, etc. who have more than one employer were cautioned today to be sure to include income from all sources on their Federal income tax returns.

A. P. Andrews, Administrative Officer of Internal Revenue in Temple said these wage earners in particular often work for a number of employees, either on a regular schedule of one or more days a week, or on an irregular basis.

In addition to reporting income from all such employment, household workers should be sure that any employer paying them $50 or more in any calendar quarter reports the wages and pays both the employer and employee portion of the social security tax to the Internal Revenue Service.

Resolution Of Policy

At a meeting of this week, members of the Milam County Democratic Executive Committee had a spirited discussion on the referendum that is to appear on the May 5, primary ballot. John Weed, Rockdale committeeman, moved that the committee not place the referendum propositions dealing with the parimutual horse racing issue on the ballot; this was seconded by Harry Clark of San Gabriel; after considerbale discussion on the issue, this motion was retracted; another motion was made by Mr. Weed, seconded by Clark that the issue be placed upon the ballot, but the committee is to draft a resolution against the horse racing issue. Members of the committee felt, after considerbale discussion on the issue, that the people should be given a chance to vote on the issue, not to do so, would be un - democratic. Whether for or against an issue, Chairman McClaren and committee members were in accord that Milam Countians should have a vote on the issue. Reasons for going on record against the issue were: 1. It would cost the local candidates approximately $850 more than usual; 2. If a horse racing issue became a law, it would in many ways jeopardize family income; 3. This type of action by Rep. "Red" Berry in seeking legislative enactment in the next legislature is known as "back - door legislation,' the committee felt it was politically unethical for Mr. Berry to attempt to get this issue on the ballot, and not pay for the cost of tabulating returns, election supplies, printing this issue on the ballot, paying additional election clerks to help with primary procedures, and other needs and expenses. The committee felt that this tremendous expense should not be placed upon the local Milam county "boys." This issue on parimutual betting was overwhelmingly defeated in the last legislature, with both our Senator and Representative voting against the issue. The State Democratic Committee went on record opposing the issue.

Along with the Milam County Democratic committee in the issue was the McLennan County committee; Dr. A. P. Cagle said it would cost the McLennan candidates around $1,500 extra to get the referendum on the McLennan ballot; other neighboring counties are confronted with the same situation. The county committees did not know at their February meeting that Rep. Berry would present such a referendum at the state executive meeting and therefore did not set up primary expenses to cover this extra cost. Chairman McClaren said that if people or groups want a "free ride" at the expense of their fellowman -- this is unethical; we have enough of this socialistic trend going on today. Groups upon groups are looking for handouts today; this horse racing issue is a paramount example of this "free ride" philosophy; if people are going to "ride," they should not "drag" their feet.

McClaren said that many laymen and pastors over the country had telephoned him expressing their disapproval of the referendum. Most of them agreed that the poll tax issue was necessary, but that it should be enacted at the regular legislature and not penalize the local candidates with additional expenses on such a long referendum to be placed on the ballot.

The committee will draft a resolution of disapproval; copies will be sent to the county newspapers, radio stations, and be placed upon the permanent minutes of the committee.

Signed:

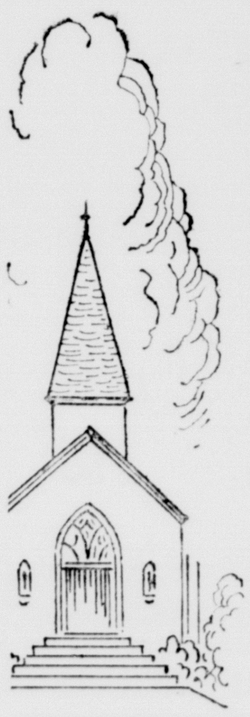
Shall I FILL it?



How enthusiastic that question often is when the customer drives in.

But this man is ambitious, not only about filling gas tanks during the week, but about helping fill the church building with people on the Lord's day.

He knows that a church building, half-filled, actually, would be half-empty; and that such would be uncomplimentary to the church, to people who need the church and to God Whom the church represents.

Yes, he knows that full church buildings are still more important than full gas tanks. That's the reason he "takes time out" to give friendly invitations to "Come hear our pastor preach!"

Do you, too, know the thrill of helping your pastor and church succeed in the most important work in the world: reaching more and more people for Christ and His kingdom?

Do you not have twenty-four hours a day? Why not spend at least a little of this time to help make sure that others may spend eternity with God?

"And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever." Daniel 12:3.

"Other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ" 1 Corinthians 3:11

Milam Guard Unit Not Participating In 'Gripe Session'

Special To The Herald

"Milam county National Guardsmen are working hard with the 49th Armored Division at Fort Polk, and , like the majority of the division, are resentful of the adverse publicity that the division has received because of a few disgruntled individuals."

That's the way SFC Joe Vybiral of Cameron, first sergeant of the Milam county unit, explained the situation this week. "There are always a few gripers in any group, but here at Fort Polk they are onl ya handful among 20,000 soldiers," Sgt. Vybiral said.

The "We Want Out" getherings staged by these individuals tended to give the 49th Armored Division a bad name. Yet military scources at the post have emphasized that the meetings were held by only a small fraction and did not reflect the feelings of the Texas division.

"Some of the Milam County soldiers have met with embarrassing questions while on brief trips home recently", Sgt. Vybiral said. "But to my personal knowledge, there were no Milam soldiers among the disgruntled personnel," he added.

Maj. Gen. Garley B. West, commander of the 49th, has put a stop to the meetings. Gen. West said he had shown patience, even after unfavorable publicity was circulated against Fort Polk.

However, the possible action by those at Fort Polk who do not share the same views as the dissenters led to the decision to half the gatherings.

Sgt. Vybiral said: "The Milam tankers have had a rugged training schedule since arriving at Polk The men have worked hard and executed their military jobs with dignity. Until the time we are released, probably late in August or early September, we will continue to soldier with dignity, honor and respect for our country."

The Milam unit is Company C, 3rd Medium Tank Battalion, 112th Armor.

Sgt. Vybiral also announced that four promotions have been awarded in the unit from Milam They were:

Sp4 Thomas C. Polk to Sgt. E-5; Sp4 Maurice J. Woytek to Sp5; Pfc William E. Kelm to Sp4; and Pfc John E. Pitrucha to Sp 4.

All Incomes For 1961 Are Taxable

"Taxpayers who fail to report All taxable income for 1961 are liable to be called to account for it. In fact, they may be subject not only to the tax, but also to interest and penalties."

This warning came today from A P. Andrews, Administrative Officer of the Internal Revenue Service in Temple.

Numerous types of income besides salaries and wages must be included in the preparation of federal income tax returnes if received.

"While the forms themselves and the accompanying instruction booklets detail several of the most common types of income which must be reported," the IRS representative said, "taxpayers are reminded that interest on savings accounts and Series 'E' U. S. Savings Bonds, tips and most dividends and profits on sales of real or personal property, are taxable income."
